BRINGING FAIRY TALES AND LITERATURE TO LIFE
— SINCE 1933 —

Hand carved, beautifully costumed marionettes enact this familiar tale with the help of skilled puppeteers. Especially painted scenes, furnishings and gorgeous costumes create a magical effect. Accented by Tchaikovsky's music this lovely tales lives again to entertain audiences of all ages.

"The Stevens Puppets Alaska Tour program was made possible with funding from the Rasmuson Foundation through the Harper Arts Touring Fund, and is administered, under contract, by the Alaska State Council on the Arts. This grant is supported with Library Services and Technology Act funding provided by the Federal Institute of Museum and Library Services as administered by the Alaska State Library. The Institute of Museum and Library Services is the primary source of federal support for the nation's 123,000 libraries and 17,500 museums. development, and research, IMLS helps communities and individuals thrive through broad public access to knowledge, cultural heritage, and lifelong learning."
